The Conservedor

Issue 23 1999

Editor: Janey Cronyn (Consultant/Lecturer, London)
Deputy Editor: Dinah Eastop (University of Southampton)
Assistant Editors: Sonia O'Connor (University of Bradford)
Joyce Townsend (Tate Gallery)

Editorial Advisory Board:
May Cassar (Museums and Galleries Commission)
Andrew Durham (National Museums and Galleries on Merseyside)
Frances Haitham (Haitham and Associates, London)
Helen Howard (Courtauld Institute of Art)
Rob Payton (Museum of London)
Gillian Roy (British Museum)
Robert Wilmot (Historic Scotland)

Contents

Editorial

The Pagani Panels: the conservation and display of painted wall-mounted linoleum
Robert Payton

The conservation of an 1895 Panhard et Levassor and a 1922 prototype Austin Seven motorcar: new approaches in the preservation of vehicles
Hazel Newey and Peter Meehan

The first non-intrusive upholstery treatment at the Victoria & Albert Museum
Derek Balfour, Simon Metcalf and Frances Collard

Original giltting and over-gilding: the examination of the layers on an important English eighteenth-century chair
Christine Powell

Recent treatments of painted Egyptian shrouds: the influence of condition and intended role
Pippa Cruickshank, Monique Pullan and Jenny Potter

The application of cross-sections in the analysis of historic textiles
Cordelia Rogerson and Dinah Eastop

Environmental monitoring of the Great Painted Staircase at Knole
Gill Nason and Katy Lithgow

Cellulose sorbents: an evaluation of their working properties for use in wall painting conservation
Charlotte Redman

Investigation of a 'white cast' on a mid-nineteenth-century watercolour painting
Penelope Banou and Brian Singer

Towards a better understanding of the physical properties of lining materials for paintings: interim results
Christina Young

Guidelines for Contributors